

A. WALDEN, TRAINER, DEAD

Well-Known Turfman, a Victim of Pneumonia, Passed Away To-Day at the Home of the Bowling Brook Stud.

Wyndham Walden, the noted trainer and breeder of horses, died to-day at his home in Middleburg, Md. A few days ago while at Pimlico he was stricken with pneumonia and was taken at once to his Bowling Brook Stud. He leaves a daughter and two sons.

Walden was well known to horsemen all over the country. He started as a stable boy and went up the ladder as jockey, owner and breeder. He had trained famous race horses and had a large stock farm of thoroughbreds. Walden had trained such horses as "The Friar," "The Mirth," "The Bowling Brook," "The Correction" and "The Reason." He bred, owned and trained "Pilgrimage," a Metropolitan Handicap winner. Walden's entire life was spent with horses. He leaves a fortune of nearly half a million.

NOT A BEGGAR, SAYS "BARON"

H. W. Troebner, Alleged Mendicant, Gets a Writ, but Is Sent Back for Completion of His Examination.

Asking for the release of Herman W. Troebner, who claims to be Baron Manteuffel, and is called "King of Beggars," Henry C. Doellinger told Justice Giegerich, to habeas corpus proceedings, to-day that the Baron, who is charged by August Messick, of the Charity Organization Society, with being a vagrant and without visible means of support, paid his captors and his own fare from New Haven to New York, and bought Messick's supper, too.

The Baron was sent to jail for five weeks in 1902 on the complaint of the late Mayor Edward Cooper, from whom he had got $2 by a plausible tale. While he was in the Tombs a dozen society women, wives of wealthy New York men, visited him and he was looking for employment in New Haven when Messick got me to come to New York, where he arrested me. I have plenty of money yet.

Justice Giegerich dismissed the writ, however, securing the Baron's freedom, the completion of the examination before Magistrate Crane in the Centre Court, with leave to renew the writ afterward.

DOCTOR BRIGHAM SAYS MANY PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womanhood is not because it is a stimulant, but because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and restorative ever discovered to act directly upon the generative organs, positively curing disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvellous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures and physicians who have recognized the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female illness, as they know by experience it can be relied upon to effect a cure. The following letter proves it.

Dr. S. C. Brigham, of 4 Brigham Park, Fitchburg, Mass., writes:

"It gives me great pleasure to say that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious and often prescribe it in my practice for female difficulties."

"My oldest daughter found it very beneficial for uterine trouble some time ago, and my youngest daughter is now taking it for a female weakness, and is surely gaining in health and strength."

"I freely advocate it as a most reliable specific in all diseases to which women are subject, and give it honest endorsement."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhoea, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. No living person has had the benefit of a wider experience in treating female illness. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice if she wants to be strong and well.
